

Cheshunt Open

On Saturday 1st October about 30 swimmers took part in the Cheshunt Open at Borehamwood pool.

All our swimmers did well getting PB's and enjoyed swimming against old friends and new.

Although only having a smaller entry than some clubs were successful in many races and overall were the 3rd best club, there were 21 clubs represented.

The swimmers finishing in the top 6 were:

Water Polo

Watford's Seniors made it to the final of the Herts Knockout cup after defeating Cambridge at home recently.

Watford holders of the "Gus Goater" Trophy had to overturn a 3 goal deficit under the competitions handicap rules and were never in danger of losing their grip on the Cup. Watford won the first quarter 2-0 with goals from Neil Haftel & Rob Souter and by half time Watford had increased the lead to 5-1 and 7-6 overall, thanks to a hat-trick from Haftel. In the third quarter Watford extended their lead to 8-2 (10-7). The final score was 10-2 (12-8).

Watford will now meet Ealing in the final to be played at Hatfield Swim Centre in late November.

In the Herts League Watford continue to chase leaders Bedford and with recent wins against Hertford (9-6) and Biggleswade (14-6), they now trail Bedford by three points but have two games in hand.

Also special Happy 18th to Ben Dollard
